Practical Steps

Responsibilities & Decision Making

STARS

SCHOOL TRANSITIONS TO ADULT RESPONSIBILITIES AND SERVICES

Explain how could you show responsibility in these situations?

1. Your just home from school and your mom rings to tell you she has to run a few errands after work. It will be just you and the 2 dogs at home until around 8:00 pm.

2. Your friend loans you their favourite jacket for a show you're going to this weekend. They are going on holidays in 2 weeks?

3. While working at the cafe, you notice another employee taking money from the cash register.

4. You told your parents you would help wash the car after school, but then your friend asks you to hang out over their house.

5. You've just started a new job and received your first paycheck. You've really been looking forward to a night out with friends, but you need more clothes to wear to work, and can't afford both.

6. You're at the supermarket and notice an older gentleman drop his bag. The bag bursts and everything rolls out.

7. You're expected at work at 10:00. You missed your bus, but the next bus will pick up in 35 minutes. You would be about 20 minutes late.

7. You're expected at work at 10:00. You missed your bus, but the next bus will pick up in 35 minutes. You would be about 20 minutes late.

8. You have an assignment due in the morning that is taking longer than you expected. You were also supposed to help brother put together his new bed, and your favourite show is on this evening.